

- Located at the crossroads of three magnificent continents, Africa, Asia and Europe, Cyprus has been indelibly touched by the civilisations that have passed through the island, a legacy still visible today.
- Blessed with a glorious all year round sunshine creating an attractive relocation and investment destination for many potential investors.
- Excellent global communications and banking systems ensure accessibility wherever you are in the world.
- Cyprus' attractive tax system offers a sound investment platform.
- High standards of living and education combined with excellent infrastructure mean commercial and business systems operate smoothly.
- English is widely used on the island, along with Russian and European languages, facilitating an excellent communication base for many commercial and business interests.